CABLE ADDRESS-ADRESSE TELEGRAPHIQUE UNATIONS NEW YORK

REFERENCE: Recruitment of the Chief of Staff (P-5), UNMISS/0108

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations and has the honor to refer to the requirement for the services of Police Officers in active service. In this regard, the Department of Peace Operations (DPO) is seeking the nomination of candidates for appointment on secondment to the United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) for an initial period of one year. Post is available through the issuance of the Job Opening which is posted for a period of 60 days effective 22 August 2024. The closing date for the Job Openings is 21 October 2024.

The nomination procedures together with all forms to be completed are included in this package. It is kindly requested that all documentation be submitted electronically to the Selection and Recruitment Section (SRS) to the following email address: agnessa.ryabikina@un.org.

Applications received after the deadline specified on the Job Opening will not be accepted.

In as much as the posts require the expertise of police officers in active service, the Permanent Mission of Member State is kindly requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from their national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. The Permanent Mission of Member State is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is clearly indicated on the application.

In addition, it is strongly recommended that the Permanent Mission of Member State carefully submits only those candidates meeting all requirements for the positions as described in the Job Opening.

The United Nations Secretariat would like to inform the Permanent Mission of Member State that in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates approved for placement in the roster, may be selected for positions with similar functions (same functional title and level), without a new Job Opening being issued. Candidates shall be retained in the roster for a period of two years after the first day of the month following the selection decision by the Head of the Department.

It should be noted that during the period of their secondment to the United Nations, police officers cannot be reassigned or transferred to any other position in the DPO or other parts of the United Nations Secretariat. Successful candidates will be offered a one-year fixed-term appointment which, based on performance and operational needs, may be extended for a second and third year or, in exceptional circumstances, a fourth and final year but not longer. Currently serving seconded active-duty officers under a United Nations contract are not eligible to apply or be nominated for another seconded position in the United Nations until after at least one year of separation from their last secondment on a contract with the United Nations Secretariat. As a result, nominations of currently serving seconded active-duty police officers under a United Nations contract will not be considered. Nominations of women candidates are strongly encouraged.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance approach to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country concerned.

The Secretariat also recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve in United Nations peace operations or special political missions are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instructions of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization. In this context your attention is drawn to Staff Regulation 1.2 (j), whereby “[no] staff member shall accept any honor, decoration, favor, gift or remuneration from any Government”.

The Permanent Mission of Member State is encouraged to nominate qualified women candidates.

This request is being transmitted to all Member States.

The Secretariat expresses its appreciation to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations for its cooperation in this project.
