DPKO/OROLSI/PD/2020/109

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliment to the Permanent Mission of the Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to invite its Government to nominate individual police officers in active service for appointment on secondment to the Standing Police Capacity of the Police Division, with its duty station in the United Nations Logistics Base in Brindisi, Italy (UNLB), for a period of one year. Any further contract extension can be granted on an exceptional basis provided there is a mission mandate requirement and the incumbent displays good performance, dedication, professionalism and the achieved results. The final decision on the extension is subject to approval by the United Nations and concurrence by national authorities.

Details regarding the post for which the Secretariat is seeking qualified applicants are provided in the attached job opening No 2020-SPC-75926-DPO. Also attached are the "Application Procedures for Positions in United Nations Police Components in Peacekeeping Operations and Special Political Missions Requiring Official Secondment from National Governments of the Member States of the United Nations."

The Secretariat kindly requests the Permanent Mission to submit a separate application for each nominee for each job opening to the Selection and Recruitment Section/ Police Division/ OROLSI, 1 UN Plaza, 7th floor, room DC1-0716 or electronically to meyer3@un.org, in accordance with the above-referenced procedures, certifying that the nominee/s meet/s the requirements in the attached job opening/s. Applications submitted after the deadline specified in the job opening will not be considered.

The Permanent Mission is also requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from the national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. It is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is indicated on the application. In addition, it is strongly recommended that Member States carefully pre-screen their applicants and submit only those candidates meeting all requirements for the position as described in the job opening/s.

Member States are strongly encouraged to nominate qualified female police officers. Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.

The Secretariat wishes to inform the Permanent Mission of the Member State that, in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates placed on a roster following the selection process may be considered for posts with similar functions within a period of two years and if recommended for deployment, further arrangements will be coordinated with the Permanent Mission in due course.

It should be noted that during the period of their secondment, officers may not transfer to alternative positions within the United Nations. As a result, the nomination of police officers who are currently United Nations staff members on secondment, will not be considered.

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns as to the record and performance of police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in UN peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance approach to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country concerned.

The Secretariat also recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve in the United Nations peacekeeping or special political missions are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instruction of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of the Member State to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR POSITIONS IN THE STANDING POLICE CAPACITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS POLICE
DIVISION
REQUIRING OFFICIAL SECONDMENT FROM NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS OF MEMBER STATES OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Outlined below are the procedures to be followed by Permanent Missions for the presentation of candidates to posts requiring secondment from active Police service, which are open for recruitment within the Standing Police Capacity of the United Nations Police Division, with its duty station in the UNLB in Brindisi, Italy. In the interest of promoting an orderly process and to avoid delay in the consideration of applications, Permanent Missions are respectfully requested to adhere closely to these procedures.

1. The above mentioned posts are reserved for candidates recommended by Member States through their Permanent Missions to the United Nations. Candidates applying independently will not be considered. It is requested that applications be submitted as soon as possible. Applications received after the deadline specified in each Job Opening will not be considered.
2. All applications must be submitted on a duly completed (typed) and signed United Nations Personal History Form (P.11) or printed Personal History Profile (PHP). Applications using other formats will not be accepted, but additional information may be attached to the P. 11. or PHP. For the convenience of the Permanent Missions a P. 11. form is enclosed as a sample to be photocopied as needed. Also enclosed is the P.11 supplementary sheet and the Employment and Academic Certification (EAC) form.
3. Selection for service with the United Nations is made on a competitive basis. It is therefore essential that all the Personal History Forms be completed with a view to presenting the candidates qualifications and experiences as they relate to the requirements as set out in the relevant Job Opening. In the event a Permanent Mission wishes to recommend a candidate for several posts, a separate Personal History Form should be submitted for each post.
4. Permanent Mission are requested to present their candidates in one single submission, in accordance with the deadline date of the Job Opening, under cover of a Note Verbale listing the names of the candidates and the corresponding vacancy announcements.
5. Applications must be hand-delivered by Permanent Missions to the Selections and Recruitment Section of the Police Division, Office of Rule and Law and Security Institutions, Department of Peace Operations at DC1, 7th Floor, Room: 716 in accordance with the specific directions in the relevant Note Verbale.
6. Upon delivery of the applications, the Selections and Recruitment Section will knowledge the receipt to the individual making the delivery.
7. Communication regarding this process will be through the Permanent Mission only. The Secretariat will not entertain personal queries from individual applicants.

CIRCULATION LIMITED TO MEMBER STATES. APPOINTMENTS ARE LIMITED TO SERVICE ON POSTS FINANCED BY THE SUPPORT ACCOUNT OF PEACE OPERATIONS.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of the SPC Team Leader, the incumbent assists in the development, refinement and implementation of various law enforcement policy and planning tools associated with establishing and maintaining effective and efficient UN Police operations. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in new UN peace operations as well as assisting existing peace operations on a continual basis. It is envisaged that the incumbent will deploy to missions and be away from his/her duty station for an initial period from three to six months. More generally, the incumbent works with other SPC staff to ensure the timely preparation and dissemination of relevant reports, concept papers and action plans on international police issues relevant to ensuring the SPC's field activities (addressing both broader policy and technical administrative issues inherent in UN Police mandates). More specifically, the incumbent focuses on developing, implementing and/or updating Concepts of Operations (ConOps), Integrated Mandate Implementation Plans (IMIPs), mission assessments, mission planning and other policy and planning tools for UN Police from the perspective of the specific field assignments given to the SPC. The incumbent assists in developing, refining and updating SPC policies and directives that are in line with the strategic vision of the Police Division and the SPC. The incumbent also assists other SPC members as directed in other law enforcement thematic areas outside his/her own area of focus. When at headquarters in Brindisi, the incumbent works closely with other SPC members to integrate and balance their activities into respective ConOps and IMIPs in support of the SPC's own terms of reference for its assignments. S/he develops annual SPC workplans in line with Results Based Budgeting (RBB) and assists members with developing individual workplans. S/he also prepares brief country reports and security analyses of the mission areas to which the SPC is being sent. When deployed in the field, the incumbent reviews UN Police operations and analyses the state of development of national law enforcement agencies with a view to facilitating required improvements and changes in ConOps and IMIPs, bearing in mind the strategic mission of the UN Police, which is to build institutional law enforcement capacity in conflict and post-conflict environments.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety and capacity-building; ability to remain calm in stressful situations; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills. Commitment to implementing the goal of gender equality by ensuring the equal participation and full involvement of women and men in all aspects of peace operations. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in the applied sciences, social sciences or other relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications and extensive experience in law enforcement may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required. Work Experience: A minimum of five years of progressively law enforcement experience in active national police, with a current rank of at least Chief Inspector or Major, equivalent or higher rank is required. Experience in law enforcement planning and formulation/implementation of policy is required. Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other organizations is an advantage. Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Knowledge of a second official UN language, preferably French is highly desirable.

Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.
